

During your conference at the Hagerty Center we will be offering a “Night at The Mercato”, located in the Village at The Grand Traverse Commons.

Start your trip at 5:30 PM at the Hagerty Center with executive transportation, provided by Celtic Shuttles, on your way to the Black Star Farms Tasting Room.

After enjoying light canapes while sampling five different wines from the local region, you will have the opportunity to explore the eclectic shops of the Mercato, before moving in to the Award-winning “Tratoria Stella” to enjoy a three course dining experience with a touch of Italian Wine. Afterward, you will be transported back to the Hagerty Center, or to Downtown Traverse City if you prefer, while enjoying sweet delights from “Morsels Bite-Sized Bakery”.

This guided “evening out” includes all tax, gratuities, and enjoyment listed above for $89 per person. Group size is limited to 30 persons –do not wait to make your reservation by calling 231-995-3100. Please reference the “MITS/REMC Blended Learning 2012” conference when making arrangements for this unique experience on June 19, 2012.

