

Hey, did you go to the beach party last night?

[MUSIC PLAYING]

It was awful.

What happened?

There was all this trash everywhere, and I cut my foot on some broken plastic junk.

I'll see you at the beach after school, Willis.

I'm glad the community cleanup project is giving us a barbecue down there.

Hey, that gives me an idea for our communications group assignment.

Gee, I need an idea for that assignment too.

Well, I'll do a presentation about recycling plastic.

I guess I could do one on littering.

I was thinking about doing a cartoon for the assignment. That's a great idea.

Well, I'll bring my iPad to make a video of you cleaning up the beach for our group.

Well, I'm thinking of trying something Mr. T. mentioned in class, an infographic. He said we'll learn about it today in class.

OK, guys, see you later.

Bye.
